UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA

STEAKHOUSE SEATTLE, LLC et al.,

                    Plaintiff (s),

       v.

UNITED STATES ,

                   Defendant (s).

CASE NO.
3:18−cv−05751−BHS

MINUTE ORDER REGARDING
DISCOVERY AND DEPOSITIONS

13   NOW, on September 18, 2018, the Court directs the Clerk to enter the following

14 Minute Order:

15   1. DISCOVERY. All discovery matters should be resolved by agreement if

16 possible. If a ruling is needed on any discovery question, and counsel wish to avoid

17 the time and expense of a written motion, they may obtain an expedited ruling through

18 a telephone conference call to the Court at (253) 882−3825.

19   2. DEPOSITIONS. Depositions will be conducted in compliance with the

20 following rules:

21   (a) Examination. If there are multiple parties, each side should ordinarily

22 designate one attorney to conduct the main examination of the deponent, and any

23 questioning by other counsel on that side should be limited to matters not previously

24 covered.

25   (b) Objections. The only objections that should be raised at the deposition

26 are those involving a privilege against disclosure, or some matter that may be remedied if presented at the time (such as the form of the question or the responsiveness of the answer), or that the question seeks information beyond the scope of discovery. Objections on other grounds are unnecessary and should be avoided. All objections should be concise and must not suggest answers to, or otherwise coach, the deponent. Argumentative interruptions will not be permitted.

(c)   Directions Not to Answer.   Directions to the deponent not to answer are improper. Advice not to answer may be appropriate on the ground of privilege or to enable a party or deponent to present a motion to the Court or special master for termination of the deposition on the ground that it is being conducted in bad faith or in such a manner as unreasonably to annoy, embarrass or oppress the party or the deponent, or for appropriate limitations upon the scope of the deposition (e.g., on the ground that the line or inquiry is not relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence). When a privilege is claimed, the witness should nevertheless answer questions relevant to the existence, extent or waiver of the privilege, such as the date of the communication, who made the statement in question, to whom and in whose presence the statement was made, other persons to whom the contents of the statement have been disclosed, and the general subject matter of the statement.

(d)   Responsiveness.   Witnesses will be expected to answer all questions directly and without evasion, to the extent of their testimonial knowledge, unless they choose to follow the advice of counsel not to answer.

(e)   Private Consultation.   Private conferences between deponents and their attorneys during the actual taking of the deposition are improper, except for the purpose of determining whether a privilege should be asserted. Unless prohibited by the Court for good cause shown, such conferences may, however, be held during normal recesses and adjournments.

MINUTE ORDER – 2

1   (f)   Conduct of Examining Counsel. Examining counsel will refrain from

2   asking questions he or she knows to be beyond the legitimate scope of discovery, and

3   from undue repetition.

4   (g)   Courtroom Standard. All counsel and parties should conduct

5   themselves in depositions with the same courtesy and respect for the rules that are

6   required in the courtroom during trial.

7   3.   RESPONSIBILITY OF PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL. This order is issued at 8   the outset of the case, and a copy is delivered by the clerk to counsel for Plaintiff.

9   Plaintiff's counsel (or Plaintiff, if pro se) is directed to deliver a copy of this order to 10 each other party within ten (10) days after receiving notice of that party's appearance.

11   The foregoing Minute Order was authorized by the THE HONORABLE

12 BENJAMIN H. SETTLE, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE.
